

Eco Watch Club

Eco-Watch club activities are carried out to create awareness with a focus on conservation and restoration. The club organizes various activities like workshops, training, competitions, tree planting, rally, guest lectures involving eminent scientists, academicians and industrialists, and field-based programmes such as Eco trips to inculcate awareness about nature and its conservation.